PROJECT COMPONENTS

The Blog

A fun loving goofy boy who loves a tussle in the grass. Winner of the prestigious best-at-nothing award for doing absolutely nothing. You can find me enjoying a quick game of Just Dance in the living room on my days off, or laying outside in my hammock to pass the time. Don't ask me which gaming console is my favourite because favourites are for busy-bodies without free time.

Catch you on the flipside muchachos!
